

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

The Coronation Multi-Strategy Arbitrage Hedge Fund makes use of arbitrage strategies in the pursuit of attractive risk-adjusted returns, independent of general market direction. The fund is expected to have low volatility with a very low correlation to equity markets. Stock-picking is based on fundamental in-house research. Factor-based and statistical arbitrage models are used solely for screening purposes. Active use of derivatives is applied to reduce risk and implement views efficiently. The risk profile of the fund is expected to be low due to its low net equity exposure and focus on arbitrage-related strategies. The portfolio is well positioned to take advantage of low probability/high payout events and will thus generally be long volatility through the options market. The fund's target return is cash plus 5%. The objective is to achieve this return with low risk, providing attractive risk-adjusted returns through a low fund standard deviation.

INVESTMENT PARAMETERS

Net exposure is capped at 30%, of which 15% represents true directional exposure in the alpha strategy. Gross exposure is limited to 300%, allowing the fund to benefit from arbitrage-related strategies that do not require significant capital. The gross exposure is calculated by total value of longs plus total absolute value of the shorts as percentage of the market value of the fund. If derivatives are used in the portfolio, then its true effective exposure should be incorporated when calculating net and gross exposure. The Portfolio is precluded from raising any debt funding over and above that achieved in terms of the long/short process. There are mandated limits per strategy. The fund may invest in unlisted vehicles, in particular money market investment and exposure to small capitalisation shares may be achieved in this way. Investment in derivatives is permitted for efficient investment management of the fund.

MONTHLY COMMENTARY

The Fund* had an excellent month delivering a return of 3.1%, especially given the significant flows which came in at the start of the month and had the ability to disrupt the portfolio structure. In a fairly unusual outcome, every strategy delivered a positive return for the month. The largest contributor was the Market Neutral Pairs portfolio, where a number of pairs produced strong results, some as a result of corporate action, others just due to results coming in line with our forecasts. The Long Only portfolio was also significant, mainly due to stock selection as it generated returns well in excess of the market return for the month. The Residual portfolio was next biggest as the credits and preference shares produced decent income. This was an outlier month and one would not expect returns of this size on a regular basis.

*The Fund return is net of expenses and gross of fees.
